

Dr. J. H. Hull to Speak at C of C Breakfast Meeting

The Torrance Chamber of Commerce monthly membership breakfast meeting is to be held Tuesday, March 26, at 7:30 a.m., in the International House of Pancakes.

Two separate subjects will be discussed.

First, Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent, Torrance Unified School District, will talk on the subject, "Why Your Schools Need More Classrooms," and outline the facts surrounding the school bond issue vote April 16.

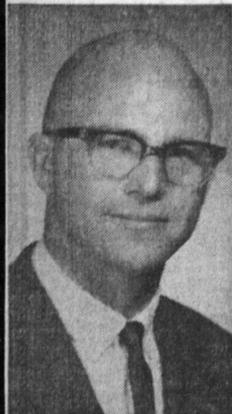

Second, Charles F. Edwards, regional vice president, New York Life Insurance Co., will talk on insurance company investments in this area.

The New York Life is dedicating a new office in Torrance.

Bobbet King will be honored by the Chamber of Commerce at the breakfast for her service to the community for the past year as

Cobalt 'Bomb' Building Bids Due March 26

Bids for construction of a building expansion for a "cobalt bomb" at South Bay Hospital will be opened March 27 at a board of directors meeting at the hospital.

Construction will be completed in October. When completed, the cobalt therapy unit will be the only one in the area. As such, it is intended to provide the area's medical needs in the field of super voltage cancer therapy.

Free Beaches for All Sought in Legislation

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn said he is pressing for legislation which would guarantee that for all time public beaches would be open and free to all persons.

Hahn asked a proposed State law to that effect after the City of Laguna Beach acted to exclude nonresidents from its beach in February.

'Twas a CHILLY NIGHT, and the fox went out. Second graders at Steele Elementary School sing a folk song, "The Fox Went Out on a Chilly Night," accompanied on the guitar by their teacher, Mrs. Maxine Jensen, who has written a picture book, illustrated by Peter Spier, with the same title. William Forrest, principal of Steele School, tape-records the voices.

County Building Plans Approved

Preliminary plans and cost figures, were set at $3,050,885.

The building will have nine court rooms as well as facilities for the County Clerk, District Attorney, Law Library, Public Defender and Sheriff's Civil Division.

On motion by Supervisor Burton W. Chace, in whose district the proposed courts building is to be located, the board authorized preparation of final plans. Tentative Use classified. DA 5-1515
